

Book Signing Event

Professor James Hitchcock

Sunday, January 27th, 2013, 2 – 4 PM

Boland Hall at the Cathedral Basilica

Finally! Professor Hitchcock’s long awaited and comprehensive HISTORY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH is out. Join Credo in welcoming his book and congratulating him on his latest achievement at a reception and book signing event. You can buy your copy for the discounted price of $25 (cash or check please). Professor Hitchcock give us a short talk, and will be glad to inscribe your copy for you if you like. There will be some light refreshments. Free, but donations appreciated.

This is not a textbook treatment of the Church’s history — rather it is more like her story — the Church’s story — told by a professional (and sympathetic) historian. The bad and the ugly are not ignored whilst the good and the beautiful are recounted. Hitchcock says “While in every age the Church demonstrates her power to transform the world, the moral weaknesses of both her leaders and her members are at the same time both a scandal and an ironic witness to her divine character – mere men could never have accomplished the good that the Church has achieved over two millennia.”
