CHRISTUS REX AND THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Fr. David Vincent Meconi, S.J.

Sunday, November 23rd 6 PM

Tonight's talk examines the meaning of "Kingdom" as evidenced throughout the Magisterium's Compendium of The Social Doctrine of the Church and how Christ the King is the ultimate goal of what St. John Paul II meant by the term "New Evangelization." Here the Kingdom is presented not as a place but as a living task entrusted to those in union with Christ. As such, the "Kingdom of God" must be fostered in terms of relationship, as Christians seek a three-fold peace: with the divine Trinity, with their own brothers and sisters, and with the creation entrusted to their care.

Fr. David Vincent Meconi, S.J., D.Phil. (Oxon.) teaches in the Department of Theological Studies at Saint Louis University; he is also the editor of Homiletic and Pastoral Review. He holds the pontifical license in Patrology from the University of Innsbruck and the D.Phil. in Ecclesiastical History from Oxford University. Most recently he published the Annotated Confessions of Saint Augustine (Ignatius Press, 2012), The One Christ: St. Augustine's Theology of Deification (Catholic University of America Press, 2013), as well as co-edited (along with Eleonore Stump) the Cambridge Companion to Augustine (2014). He is a former president of the Jesuit Philosophical Association, as well as a Fellow at the Augustinian Institute at Villanova University.

SPONSOR A SEMINARIAN

We have had Credo members bring seminarians to Forums sometimes and we want to try to expand on this very good idea. According to our adviser Bishop Hermann, seminarians are simply too broke to pay for a Forum even if they have the time to attend, so here's what we want to do: we will ask Credo members to "Sponsor a Seminarian" when they register for a Forum. This is a tax-deductible contribution to Credo. Depending on how many sponsorships we get and the condition of Credo's bank account, we'll send a letter to Fr. Horn (rector of the Seminary) and to Fr. Witt (one of our advisers and a seminary professor) telling them "We have this many slots for seminarians — here's a discount code to use when they register on-line. Use at your discretion." There are about 100 seminarians at Kenrick and we have four Forums a year, so there are plenty of opportunities here to be generous. We'll see what kind of response we get. And of course we'd love for Credo members to "sponsor" anyone else, especially kids, grandkids, nieces, nephews, neighbors, and friends. The New Evangelization is for everyone, but especially for the young.
